

Human security – cases from Kyrgyzstan and Tajikistan

Tuesday, 12 November 2019

*European Endowment for Democracy
Rue de la Loi 34, 1040 Brussels*

This roundtable is dedicated to Europe-Central Asia cooperation with a focus on internal migration, the privacy-security contradiction and police reform. The roundtable will offer an opportunity for EU officials and civil society actors to discuss aspects of human security and security sector reform in Central Asia while EUCAM fellows can present and discuss their research.

The meeting is organised by the Europe-Central Asia Monitoring (EUCAM) programme of the Centre for European Security Studies (CESS) in Groningen, the Netherlands, the European Neighbourhood Council (ENC) in Brussels and the European Endowment for Democracy.

The event is by invitation only and will be held under the Chatham House rule.

14.00 – 14.30	Registration and welcome coffee
	Opening remarks
14.30 – 15.30	Peter Sondergaard (EED), Samuel Doveri Vesterbye (ENC), and Jos Boonstra (CESS) Niklas Nienafß, MEP with the Group of the Greens/European Free Alliance and DCAS member Boris Iarochévitch, EEAS, Head of Division, Central Asia
	Human Security in Central Asia
15.30 – 16.30	Moderator Andreas Marazis, Head of Research for Eastern Europe and Central Asia, ENC Panel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Zhypariza Zhumagazieva, EUCAM fellow: Internal migration in Kyrgyzstan • Bermet Zhumakadyr kzy, EUCAM Fellow: The privacy-security contradiction in Kyrgyzstan • Muslimbek Buriev, EUCAM Fellow: Police reform in Tajikistan Discussion and exchange of views